Christian perfection

The latter position was that of both the Socinians and John Locke. It is subsequent to regeneration and is accomplished in a moment of time when the believer presents himself a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable unto God.

Jesus

The reason for this is that, as we noted at the beginning, the Hebrew Bible does not present a theory of the soul developed much beyond the simple concept of a force associated with respiration, hence, a life-force.

Rubem Alves

The two great corruptions he actually listed hundreds of corruptions in both beliefs and forms of worship involved two noxious and related doctrines — the Greek concept of a separate soul or spirit, and the orthodox doctrine of the trinity. The title and subtitle of the 1545 2nd Latin edition read: Psychopannychia — qua repellitur quorundam imperitorum error qui animas post mortem usque ad ultimum iudicium dormire putant.
