Saga of Cleopatra's Needles

Helayne Seidman To celebrate his 30th year of rule, the pharaoh asked for a pair of pillars to flank the sun temple in Heliopolis — a feat that sent thousands of workers south to the Aswan quarry to cut each monument from a single piece of red granite. Over the years they collected books from Greece, Rome, Egypt and even as far away as India. The official ceremony for erecting it was January 22, 1881.
