Niccolò Machiavelli Biography

Corruption is associated with a decline though not a moral decline in previously civilized human beings.

SparkNotes: The Prince: Overview

At any rate, the question of the precise audience of The Prince remains a key one.

Niccolò Machiavelli (Author of The Prince)

The Crisis of the Early Italian Renaissance. In 1522, Piero Soderini died in Rome. Many scholars have taken such evidence to indicate that Machiavelli was himself profoundly anti-Christian, preferring the pagan civil religions of ancient societies such as Rome, which he regarded to be more suitable for a city endowed with virtù.

Niccolo Machiavelli

A month after he was appointed to the Chancery, he was also appointed to serve as Secretary to the Ten, the committee on war. What, then, to make of the rest of the book? Thus, a prince should not be concerned if he is held to be stingy, as this vice enables him to rule.

How to Understand Machiavellianism: 12 Steps (with Pictures)

Lorenzo is noted for his youth F 7. Suffice it to say that, as with virtù, Fortuna is employed by him in a distinctive way.

Medici: Godfathers of the Renaissance . Renaissance . Machiavelli

Florence had a difficult part to play during these events, complicated as they were by the feud which broke out between the pope and the French, because friendship with France had dictated the entire policy of the Republic. On May 23, 1498, almost exactly a year later, he was hung and then burned at the stake with two other friars in the Piazza della Signoria. Imprisoned in Florence, 1512; later exiled and returned to San Casciano.
