How should adults deal with their overbearing parents

Your story is an empowering one and I hope others will benefit from your example. Only I who will be responsible for it.

Dealing with Over Protective Parents

I have told them I am a middle aged woman but they said they can control me because I behave like a 10 year old and don't obey and take on board their feedback. They became so nasty bringing up my past etc.

Dealing with Over Protective Parents

They will constantly try to mess my car up so that I constantly have to put my money into fixing it. If you have truly critical and controlling parents, you may recognize that they disguise their criticism, try to make you feel guilty for past behavior, or constantly make you feel bad about your life. If you are still under the age of 18, and you still live with your mother, your ability to make decisions apart from hers may be limited.

Signs of Overprotective Parents and What to Do

Easier said than done, especially for a 42 year old going on 12.

When Overprotective Parenting is a Problem

Therefore, it is helpful to forgive your parents for any mistakes they made.

Causes, Signs and Effects of Overprotective Parents

Overprotective parents are sometimes called helicopter parents because the parents hover over their children at all times.
