The Council maintains that the applicants have in no way demonstrated the actual non-pecuniary loss allegedly suffered and that they have made an arbitrary and unsubstantiated quantification of that loss.

Statutory Instrument 1997 No. 733

Domestic handlers and importers will pay an assessment of one half cent per pound on the mangos they handle and import, respectively, to fund the program. The fact that these events coincided suggests that this was the case and, if so, the Commission should remedy its failure to exercise its powers correctly caused by its bowing to political pressure from the UK. .
