

Mumbaī samācāra = - The Bombay samachar, 1822-1972.

- - List of South Asian Newspapers

Description: -

-

Mumbaī samācāra. Mumbaī samācāra = - The Bombay samachar, 1822-1972.

-Mumbaī samācāra = - The Bombay samachar, 1822-1972.

Notes: In Gujarati; appendix in English.

This edition was published in 1972

Filesize: 61.11 MB

Tags: #Mumbai #Samachar

Mumbai Samachar

From its inception the editorial policy was to objectively report events in a fair and honest manner and not to sensationalize news, sobriety and independence of views being a characteristic which still stands.

List of South Asian Newspapers

Org This page uses frames, but your browser doesn't support them. Another notable feature of this paper which holds good to this day is the policy to allow numerous small advertisers to advertise their products on the front page rather than allow only one advertiser to occupy what is commonly referred to as solus position. A brief description of the contents of this first issue will give an idea of what an Indian journal was in those days.

List of South Asian Newspapers

Respected by both the British and Indian Government for its fair, frank, objective and critical analysis of events, the Mumbai Samachar played a very important role during India's struggle for independence being often quoted by freedom fighters like , , and others.

Bombay Samachar

The then governor of Bombay, Sir Bartle Frere, ordered its construction in the 1860s and called it Elphinstone Circle.

Related Books

- [Lui - \[un amore breve, tenero, sconvolgente, disperato\]](#)
- Lots of stories - Maritime narratives from the Creighton collection
- Vessel source pollution - the integration of international and domestic responses in the search for
- How to avoid sexism - a guide for writers, editors and publishers
- Geschichtspolitik