Scandinavian Painted Decor by Jocasta Innes

Stunning full-color photographs enable you to explore the delights of Scandinavian interiors and painted wood architecture, from the cheerful charm of rural farmhouses and country manors to the rich splendor of palaces and churches. In some cases, amber items were so subtle that they basically appeared to be another neutral. Using these ten hacks as your guide, you should be able to create a stunning space that incorporates the simplicity, beauty, and functionality of a Scandinavian interior design.

That way, you know it'll never look forced or out of place.

Scandinavian folk art

They have had great confidence in the choices I have made in curating The Nordic Edit color card throughout the process. With this inspiring source of decorating ideas and how-to instructions, you can bring a touch of Scandinavia to any place in the world.

Perfecting a Scandinavian style colour scheme

A nice color combination creates a visual calm and is an important grounding feature for further decoration of the rooms. I came home and tried to re-create it with this soft, almost pearlized silver-gray paint. Do locals dread the frigid weather? It also includes the use of natural materials, such as leather, wood, and hemp.
