Meanwhile, in Maugham's personal life, he began to have an affair with Gwendolyn Maud Syrie Barnardo Wellcome, and although still married to her husband, she bore Maugham a child in 1915. In reply to the first question, we compared Woolf with several other important modernist writers in terms of the density and variety of parallelism by conducting a sampling-based analysis. They are his tests, and he fights these temptations in a Christ-like manner.
