Reading Shakespeare's Language: The Two Gentlemen of Verona

. It has been argued that Two Gentlemen may have been Shakespeare's first work for the stage.

Reading Shakespeare's Language: The Two Gentlemen of Verona

Other productions

But this is a production that brings out the identity-transforming nature of love that nicely contrasts staid Verona with racy Milan and that brings a touch of melancholy reflectiveness to Shakespeare's abrupt denouement: what future, one wonders, do Proteus and Julia really have? Horrified at what has happened, Proteus vows that the hate Valentine feels for him is nothing compared to the hate he feels for himself. Two Gentlemen of Verona by 1789.
