MYREADER'S BLOCK: What Beckoning Ghost: Review

The scene cross fades into Mildred asleep amidst white satin and lace. . The full story is told in the CADS Supplement Was Corinne's Murder Clued? It's a bibliographic mystery, to which we don't have the solution.

'Do You Write Under Your Own Name?': Forgotten Book

He appears as comforting as a mannequin in a department store. Does he really love her? It would appear so...but this is a Thriller.

What Beckoning Ghost? by Churchward, John

Is this really happening, or am I going out of my mind! That's where he first hears the story of the Hyde Park ghost, who appeared to the former owner of the house after her son was lost at sea during World War II. I will partially paraphrase Edwards introduction of the story as there isn't a summary of this book's storyline either in this profile or in any reviews. Tensions are already high around the dinner table, but one of the guests brings up the death of Whichcord Corinne takes far more exception to the topic than one would expect.
