Getting started with Reflective Practice

This book, along with the core text and associated website, draw upon the work of Andrew Pollard, former Director of the TLRP, and the work of many years of accumulated understanding of generations of further, adult and vocational professionals. For Donald, reflection-in-action was one of the most essential components of professional artistry — an aspect differentiated on the basis of technical-rationality which was demanded by the paradigm where problems can be solved by the rigorous applications of Science.
