Curious World of Samuel Pepys and John Evelyn

Pepys excluded nothing from his journal that seemed to him essential, however much it told against himself.

Samuel Pepys

People have fun manipulating these customs.

Samuel Pepys and His World

This book captures that energy and weaves details drawn from the writings of both men into a colourful and convincing panorama of seventeenth-century London. Skilled men led teams of smiths, carpenters, sailmakers, rope-makers, gunfounders, powder-makers, and the like.

Samuel Pepys and the Plague

His forthcoming novel Meatheads Say the Realest Things will be published by Tailwinds.

Samuel Pepys and the Plague

But the stone, the size of a tennis ball, was itself agony.
