Police must use new eyewitness ID rules to reduce wrongful identifications

The chance of misidentification is also heightened if the police indicate to the witness that they have other evidence that one of the persons pictured committed the crime.

Showups, Lineups, and Photo Arrays

Preferably this preparation would be included in the training on the policies themselves. . It is only when the jury is satisfied that the sole reason for the fabrication was to deceive them and there is no other explanation for it being put forward, that fabrication can provide any support for identification evidence.

Eyewitness Identification

Recommended Police Guidelines for Showups Following is a series of recommended guidelines for conducting showups as written by the Port Washington Police Department.

Identification Procedures And DOJ Guidelines

This is known as a showup. In 2005, Barasse said that police departments should implement the guidelines before a savvy defense attorney uses them to dismantle one of their cases or before someone who was wrongfully convicted uses the guidelines to sue their department. The availability of video identification means that cases where an identification procedure is not practicable should be rare.
