I thought I could offer another suggestion, for you and other people who may be interested in a different take of Spain, a different perspective of its people. Philosophical inquiry involves subjecting these presuppositions and assumptions to the tribunal of reason. As the traditional narrative goes, philosophical thought has its origins in Greece.

White Shadows

So I trudged through the book and none of that really happened for me. It is set in 1950's Tampa and Cuba and centers around the murder of Charlie Wall, a mob boss who was in retirement when he was brutally murdered. A unique mix of Latin Spanish, Cuban, Italian, Cracker, African American with a sprinkling of other backgrounds thrown in produced a special place regionally and historically.
