Like Pulp Fiction or , this is a film that treats cars as more than utilitarian props. Nor can any be built; in order to leave the Underworld you must: use an while on the topmost Underworld floor in order to reach the Deep Cave floor and leave from there , use an Escape Lantern, or find a Statue of Mercy. Plus — Frances freaking McDormand, man! For all its common elements, the genre has evolved quite a bit from something like Chinatown in the 1970s to something like in 2014.

Underworld

Just as Brick locks onto and emulates those overly smooth noir musings, Black uses them to riff on the genre itself.
