American Gladiators

All this time, his poetic talents were variously directed toward the stage. By joining Slate Plus you support our work and get exclusive content.

Taft, Charles P. 1897

Her internal organs, soft skin, flowing hair, and type A blood, have fascinated all of the modern scientists and archaeologists. Poems are after the fold. The Schools have altered the truth so badly my Daughter, Son-In-Law, Grand Daughter and Great Grand Daughter, I question their grasp of the real reality of any of this.

Franklin Dodge

He was a man of the present, drawing from the moment what was truest from his standpoint. There- fore we decreed that every man should thenceforth have equal liberty to find his own level.
