BOMBADIER JAMES LYNN

dated 30th N'vernber to his parculs anya"The wather is most unpleasant; the stow has cleared away, and we have wind and rais instead, which is most morocaous. We are living to underground treaches, which we have covered with a layer of thick brauches, thin straw, and easth on top of all this. We have made fire places is them, and have fires during the day, though it is very cold at night. We are doing very little firing at present, and with the exception of a little 14 of sniping the Germans are also quiet. I nipey you are not worrying about your two sons being away at the war, as lost of other parents have given a number of hop a to the Empire, and thousands
the war, as lost of other parents have given a number of hop a to the Empire, and thousands of brothers are fighting and by side at this very moment, and a good many of them have died, while, shask God. Bob and I are still spared. I must say I'm ashamed of the country I belong to. I saw in the paper has some young men from Rock went off as fast as they could to America when mention was made of compulary service. I would like to see some of them in the uschess. Remember
