When the BCB announced its central contracts for 2012, Ashraful's A+ contract was not renewed. In the second Test Ashraful combined with wicketkeeper to score 191 for the sixth wicket, establishing a record for Bangladesh, and Ashraful scored 129 not out.

Ashraful Aid

After an extended run of poor form and Bangladesh's first-round exit in the , Ashraful was sacked as captain in June 2009. Aside from the 67 he managed in one of the fastest half-centuries in Test cricket, Ashraful managed just five more runs in the series; in two ODIs, he scored 41 runs. Bangladesh lost the second Test by ten wickets and the series 2 0, with Ashraful managing 37 runs in the match and claimed the wicket of.
