Overseas students in Australian higher education: a quick guide

The second edition of this analysis of Australia's central diplomatic relationships has been updated to cover the whole period to Keating's election victory of 1993. The commercial motive of foreign aid can be seen in the practice of tying aid.

Insurance

The process of recalibrating defence relations, however, cannot proceed in a historical vacuum. Aid that is channeled through intergovernmental organizations such as the World Bank or regional development banks; the International Monetary Fund; UN agencies, most notably the United Nation Development Programme; and the OECD is known as multilateral aid.
