Other line managers may feed in to your performance review and the details of how this happens should form part of your review statement. . Should I have an appraisal? Careful consideration must be taken where any objective relates to meeting specific percentage targets or outcomes from tests or examinations.

Performance Appraisal

Where possible, the NEU would advise against setting such objectives.

Appraisal

Through evaluating performance of employees, a persons efficiency can be determined if the targets are achieved.

Performance Appraisal

What happens if I do not agree with the objectives? I have more than one line manager at my school - who should be my appraiser? Your objectives should be appropriate to your role, working time, level of experience and responsibility. However, NEU policy is for a maximum of three per year for all purposes, not exceeding three hours in total. These objectives must be reasonable.

MSG Content Team comprises experienced Faculty Member, Professionals and Subject Matter Experts. The DfE makes this clear in its guidance to schools. The NEU believes objectives should only be revised in exceptional circumstances, that is, where there have been significant changes in your duties; significant changes in the pupils or the type of pupils taught; or significant change s in other circumstances related to the development and improvement of your professional practice.

Performance Appraisal

The headteacher of your new school should appoint a reviewer as soon as you start and a planning meeting should take place within a reasonable time of you taking up that employment, usually within six weeks. If you are in regular employment your appraisal cycle should be 12 months. Keeping in Touch KIT days should not be used for the purposes of appraisal.
