Edith Stein (Teresa Benedicta of the Cross)

In 2008, a memorial: kamienie pamięci was placed near Stein's childhood home at 38 ul. Integrating eidetic phenomenology and Thomistic metaphysics, Stein ultimately developed a novel systematic account of social life that is the produce of the actions of free, individual persons, whose experiences and volitions are rooted in cognitions as well as emotions and who can attain the level of rational and communal life that is open to the possibility of a transcendence, lifting humans beyond their finitude. But that just reiterates the point that the two forms of relating to others are not identical.
