The Group Areas Act also destroyed and displaced Coloured and Indian communities: there were forced removals from areas such as District Six in Cape Town, Pageview and Fordsburg in Johannesburg, and Grey Street in Durban, to quote but a few examples.

The Making of the South African Past by Christopher Saunders

At first they were very much under the influence of religious discourse, but gradually demography and police administration began at an empirical level to investigate issues such as prostitution, population statistics, and the spread of disease. And I owe particular thanks to Mrs. Apartheid is at variance with many of the essential requirements of a growing modern industrial society.

Thus, racist discourse, functioning as truth in South Africa, is not outside power; its relation to truth is derived historically; and the discourse emerges out of the many constraints which produce regulated effects of power over blacks. Under the proposal, the University agreed to waive tuition for two students, whose room and board would be supported by the de Kiewiet scholarship endowment; additional funds were to be provided by the Bishop Tutu Southern Africa Refugee Scholarship Fund, and the Phelps-Stokes Fund. Good, some foxing on endpapers, rear outer hinge repaired, cover a bit soiled, top part of rear cover bumped.
